THE GLENDALE EAGLE ROCK ROAD

Track Laid on Glendale Avenue
Work Going Ahead Rapidly
First Car to Run on Thursday Next

It was rumored that the special session of the city fathers, last Saturday, had business of interest to transact and the event proved this surmise to be well founded. The nature of the business is fully explained by the resolution printed below which was unanimously passed upon that occasion. Mr. Cole being absent, all the other members being of one mind. As soon as the result of the meeting was announced, the contractor for the railroad grading got busy and within an hour had several furrows plowed along the east side of the avenue for the proposed track. The rain that fell Saturday night promised to interfere with plans for completing the job on the avenue before it should occur to some belligerently disposed individual for himself or others to get out an injunction, but the clear weather that followed on Sunday enabled the contractor, easily making a plea of "necessity," to get his gang to work and the grading was proceeded with. The following day being a holiday, the work was continued by a large gang of workmen and by nightfall the track for the 900 feet or so was in place, tied down and generally covered up. Up to the time we go to press no injunctions have materialized and we have no knowledge of any having been contemplated. The spectacle afforded on Monday was suggestive of anything else rather than a holiday and recalled vividly to the minds of many, that other railroad job perpetrated during the night hours of June, 1907, when a railroad disappeared from Fourth street and the community was bereft of "Maude" forever.

Since the completion of the work referred to above, the progress on the east end of the line has been rapid. Track is being laid rapidly and by the time this paper appears will doubtless be completed. It will then only be necessary to string the wires, as the poles are in place, put a finishing touch on the job in the way of getting a more uniform grade, etc., and start the car over the line. This, Mr. Goode assures us, will be done on Thursday next, Providence and the weather permitting. There are many details to be worked out as regards service, but we feel assured that although in the beginning there may be many improvements to be suggested, they will be brought about as rapidly as possible and that the people of Glendale will realize almost immediately the benefits gained by the completion of this road which, although not up to the high standard set by the Pacific Electric, either in equipment or service, in the beginning at least, will play an important part in the upbuilding of this section. Single fares at present will be twenty-five cents for the round trip, which will include transfers in Los Angeles to cars of the Los Angeles Railway system. There will be a change of cars at Eagle Rock only in traveling between Glendale and Los Angeles.

CITY TRUSTEES.

Special meeting.
In accordance with adjournment resolution passed at the last meeting, there was a special meeting of the board at 2 p. m., Saturday. All present except Mr. Cole. Trustee Blackburn offered a resolution "Granting to E. D. Goode the right to construct, maintain and operate a spur track in the city of Glendale, California," which was read and adopted by affirmative vote of all present. (Resolution appears elsewhere).

Regular meeting, February 24th.
Present all members except Mr. Cole. Demands as follows were referred to the finance committee.

Demands previously referred to the same committee were reported favorably and ordered paid. An ordinance calling a special election to be held on blank date, 1909, submitting to voters the proposition to incur an indebtedness in the amount of $60,000 for the acquisition or construction of an electric light or power works or plant, buildings, etc., in connection therewith, and providing for issue of bonds therefor, was taken up, passed first and second reading and was laid over for next meeting.

The city attorney and city engineer were instructed to prepare a resolution of intention to open Orange street from First street to Doran, and fixing the assessment district for such improvement.

It was decided to place sign posts on Eagle Rock road from junction with Third street east to easterly city limits.

RESOLUTION BY WHICH ELECTRIC RAILWAY PERMITTED ON GLENDALE AVENUE.

Goode is hereby granted the right and privilege to construct, maintain and operate a spur track from the termination of the Electric railway at Third street and Glendale avenue, along the east side of Glendale avenue, thirteen feet easterly of and parallel with the center line of said Glendale avenue to the premises of said E. D. Goode, described as lot 8, block 29. The distance of about 900 feet.

Sec. 2. That said E. D. (And the board further reserves the right to amend the language of this resolution, which will be done at some future meeting.)

THE MARTHA WASHINGTON TEA.

Gay was the scene that met the eyes of the ladies of the Tuesday Afternoon Club and their men friends, Tuesday night, upon the celebration of the one hundred and seventy-seventh birthday anniversary of George Washington. The Guild Hall, appropriately decorated with the national colors and old time relics, made a charming setting for the beautiful picture made by the Colonial Dames clad in the pretty powdered wigs and patches, quilted under-skirts and elaborately figured polonaise with buckled slippers.

Promptly at nine o'clock the guests were seated at long decorated tables in the banquet hall and after the delicious refreshments had been disposed of, the charming toastmistress, Miss Cora Hickman introduced the speakers for the evening.

Mrs. Sherer, the chairman of the committee, beautifully costumed as Martha Washington, responded to the first toast, "Theodore Roosevelt." Mrs. Ellen B. Newcomb, to "Our Friends," by an original poem. Mrs. Ezra Parker toasted "Our Guests, the Men Folks." Mrs. Wells, "America." Mrs. Taylor, "The Lady of the Postage Stamp, Martha Washington." Mrs. Pack, "Our Club," and Capt. Wells, responded for the men. After a rousing verse of "America," a musical and literary program was given. Miss Augspurger played a rollicking transcription of "Yankee Doodle," and Miss Anita Wells an old time "minuet." Mrs. Fraley sang a colonial ballad, and Miss Pirtle's rendition of a love song was dainty in the extreme. There were readings by Miss Maude Maynard, Miss Booth, Mrs. Newcomb and Miss Edith Harris and the program was ended with singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

A BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mrs. O. S. Palmer, of 116 West Sixth street, entertained about thirty guests in honor of her daughter, Ruth's ninth birthday, Monday, February 22. The afternoon was spent in playing games. About four o'clock the children marched into the dining room and were served with delicious ice cream and cake. At a late hour the little guests departed wishing Ruth many happy returns of the day.

REAL ESTATE SALES.

Mr. John Simon sold for Mrs. Mary C. Engle lots 7, 8 and 9 in the Elber's tract at Lomita avenue and Belmont street to Mr. Scott W. Johnson. Mr. Simon also sold lots 2 and 4 in block 1, Glendale, Second and Belmont streets, for Mr. Frank Sauer to Mrs. Mary C. Engle.

Social and Personal

Pupils in our schools are busily preparing for their annual exhibit.

Mr. R. A. Parker is in town showing the merits of the Hunt Steam Cooker. Mr. E. J. Hooper, cashier of the State Bank of Elkhorn, Wis., has been visiting Mr. J. Moyle.

The High School building is making satisfactory progress, the walls being up to the third story.

Hervey M. Hamilton has sold to J. T. Anderson, one acre of land on the south side of Nineteenth, with house, price $2300.

Dr. A. L. Bryant returned on Wednesday night from Santa Ana, where he had been suddenly called by the illness of a relative.

Mr. J. M. Banker is building a four-room bungalow for Mr. A. E. Volkert on Fair Oaks avenue, one block east of the winery, to cost about $600.

Mrs. J. S. Lee of Chicago is visiting Mrs. C. E. Stanley and Mrs. Morris at their residence on Everett street. She will probably remain a fortnight in Glendale.

St. Mark's Guild met on Thursday afternoon at Guild hall, the new permanent home of the energetic guild. Mrs. Henry Ward was hostess for the day and made the event a most enjoyable one.

There will be a Hygienic Dress Reform demonstration given at the symposium of the Glendale Sanitarium, next Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. All ladies are cordially invited to attend.

The Ladies' Aid society of First Presbyterian church will meet on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Mary Colburn, at 310 Cedar street. A large attendance of members is required, as business matters of importance must be discussed.

E. J. Williams, president of the Stockton National Bank of Stockton, Kas., with his wife and daughter, is visiting his niece, Mrs. T. U. Moyle. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Weaver are also visiting their daughter, Mrs. Moyle, making quite a family reunion.

At a recent meeting held at the home of Mrs. Moody, a missionary society was formally organized by Mrs. Murdock of Los Angeles, organizer for the Baptist convention. Fourteen ladies united with the new society, and the general interest and enthusiasm marked a very auspicious beginning.

The Lomita Dramatic Club, an amateur organization, which has formerly presented some very clever performances to a Glendale public, announces a representation of "A Count of No Account," a three-act comedy, at K. of P. hall, next Monday evening, March 1st. The comedy is said to be a side-splitter.

Mrs. Carrie Spence of Hastings, Mich., is spending a few weeks in Southern California and on Wednesday last visited her old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campbell of Second street. Mrs. Spence has recently purchased a lot in the Edwards tract on Second street and will probably improve the same in the near future.

A called meeting of Chapter L. P. E. O., was held Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. R. D. Goss, Fifth street. There was a very satisfactory attendance, and the year's work was brought to a close, a usual procedure before the annual election of officers, which takes place on Monday, March 8th, at the home of Mrs. R. E. Chase.

Miss Edith Harris was on Monday and Tuesday the guest of Mrs. Edgar W. Pack at the Priory. Miss Harris is a graduate of the Cumnock School of Expression, and has frequently appeared in Glendale, where she is much admired. She is a sister of Mrs. Lottie Hezmalhalch, formerly of our city, an expressionist of sweet charm and rare ability.

The Bank block, on the corner of Fourth and Glendale, is also growing rapidly, although work was suspended several days during the rainy weather of last week. The concrete work on the vault has been completed and the granite corner stones of the doorway put in place together with the cornice work of the doorway and frame work of galvanized iron.

Another public improvement in this section is the new Christian church building at the corner of Sixth and Louise streets, which is growing day by day in a manner that promises early completion. The church owns a fine corner here and the present structure is being erected on the rear of the lot leaving abundant space for future growth and expansion.

The Filger block on Fourth street is being put up rapidly, the 18-inch side and south end walls are up to the second story and the most of the frame work of the first story is in place. In view of the fact that the upper part of this structure is to have a large auditorium and be used as an "opera house," it is gratifying to note the substantial character of the work thus far completed.

The woman's foreign missionary society of the M. E. church of Glendale will hold their annual thank offering service on Sunday morning, March 7th, at 11 o'clock. Miss Urdell Montgomery, a returned missionary from India, will deliver the address. Miss Montgomery comes to us well recommended and we are sure all who avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing her will enjoy a real treat. She will give a short talk to the Bible School, just after the opening, at 11 o'clock.

ENTERED INTO REST.

Lois Lee Parker, mother of Judge C. F. Parker of Central avenue and of Mrs. S. E. Dixon of Los Angeles, entered into rest on Monday, February 15th, at the home of her son, where she had long made her home.

Lois Lee was a native of Virginia, born March 31st, 1826. With her parents she crossed the Mississippi in 1835, and lived on Black Hawk's Purchase, immediately after the treaty. As squatters the family took up several hundred acres of land. In 1844 at the age of 19, Lois was married to Mr. Parker, then a young Methodist minister.

In the early days of the civil war Mr. Parker organized in Eaglesville the 23d Mississippi regiment. From Chillicothe the family went into camp with the soldiers and wintered there beside the Grand river, until the order came "On to Shiloh."

Leaving her dear ones in good care, Mrs. Parker sought with success permission to nurse the wounded carried to St. Louis hospitals, and her real army work began, labor for which she was entitled to a pension; though for this she never applied. In hospitals, in camp, on the field, with indomitable courage and perseverance, the noble woman gave herself to her country, for at times her life was hourly in danger. Finally, her husband lying ill in the old penitentiary hospital in Alton, Ill., she went there and while attending many, nursed him back to health. Going to Iowa later, he was able to organize there another regiment.

At the close of the war, the couple started in a prairie schooner to still further penetrate the great west. Such an overland trip, so full of hardship, held no discouragement to the woman who personified endurance, who, in earlier days had lost her grandfather and uncle through Indian treachery. These relatives had entertained several of a visiting tribe with a great barbecue at the end of which, tiring of the sport of shooting at a painted man on the back of a tree, they seized their hosts and successfully used them as targets. A tiny baby girl was lifted from her cradle and carried away. Many years later, with government aid, she was restored to her family. Once she ran away and returned to "her tribe." Though recaptured, she never became happy among her white relatives, and Mrs. Parker well remembered the queer Indian habits of this aunt.

In Dakota, Mr. Parker successfully studied and practiced law until he died, thirteen years ago. Since then Lois Parker lived in Iowa, and in Oregon, and finally came to California.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at the Peck & Chase chapel, Rev. Henry of Tropic officiating. Mrs. Whitwell of Covina sang "Nearer to Thee" and "Asleep in Jesus" and the pastor read from an old hymn book a favorite of others days, marked "To be read at Lois Parker's funeral."

In her last sleep she was beautiful, wearing a smile so sweet, so suggestive of release and a great peace, that many remarked it. "It is the smile of one who has just met and recognized some loved one." Such joy-mocks sorrow, as did the beauty of the great mass of flowers. A wreath of violets, tied with tulle, was a tribute from the Masons. Other silent eulogies were rose wreaths, a pillow of lilies, and many exquisite pieces of early spring blossoms.

Interment was made in Odd Fellows' cemetery, Boyle Heights.

NOTICE!

Board of Trade Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Board of Trade held this evening at the city hall, at 8 o'clock. The purpose of the meeting will be for reorganization, to take in new members, elect new officers, etc. This is a matter of the utmost importance. Everybody interested in Glendale and vicinity is requested to be present.

PROPOSED IMPROVEMENT.

On Saturday afternoon the property holders abutting on Eagle Rock road between Third street and the city limits, and other parties interested in the proposition, met at the residence of J. H. Wells to discuss the question of continuing the width of that road, which is now fifty feet, to one hundred feet, the width at the city limits, from which point the proposed widening will continue. After taking out twenty-four feet from the middle of the road at this point for railway purposes, there is but a miserly thirteen feet remaining on each side of the railway for roadway, parkway, sidewalk, curbstone, electric and telephone poles, which would make it necessary for unwary vehicles to dodge the cars in truly back alley style.

Street Superintendent Sinclair and City Engineer Lynch were present and gave required information concerning the proposition.

The progressive property holders interested seem to comprehend the fact that the most desirable and valuable residence property in cities is not that located directly on street car lines and to obviate this disadvantage and still have the advantages of a railway, which the section of our city needs, there is no other way but to widen the street which will make that favored locality much more attractive to people of cultured taste and discriminating judgment.

We are glad to see a commendable spirit of progress manifest in street improvements in several parts of our city.

MARRIAGE BELLS.

Dr. and Mrs. Arnold Gesell have returned from a honeymoon trip and are at home at the beautiful bungalow erected recently by Prof. Gesell on Valley View road. The bungalow is erected strictly along craftsman lines, no nails being employed. Beams, etc., are dovetailed and held with thongs. There is one opal transom running above the plate rail and a pretty feature is a tiny observatory, where a fine view is obtained. There are many built-in features, seats, desk, bookcases, racks, and all the furniture is strictly craftsman. Navajo rugs, baskets and many quaint relics are a part of the home, as is also the great cobble stone fire place. The bungalow, with handsome pergola and sunny, flower-filled patio are almost hidden from the road by giant walnut trees and the spread of orange trees through which winds a pretty walk in sweeping curves. Dr. Gesell is professor of psychology in the state normal school, Los Angeles, and his bride was one of the instructors there.

COB-WEBS AND BUBBLES AT GUILD HALL.

Saturday night many gathered in Guild Hall, undeterred by wind and rain, to participate in the unique party provided for their amusement by ladies of St. Mark's Guild.

A great cob-web was woven on the rostrum, with ends containing prizes. A fish pond was surrounded with pipes and peppers and supplied with fish-poles and hooks. Other attractions were a chance booth, presided over by the Misses Pulliam, where there was great fun. Misses Emma Williams, Eleanor Clemons and Katherine Wells dispensed don-bons, and there was a very popular refreshment booth with tables. Red, white and blue decorations were used. One of the games was the blowing of rainbow bubbles through flowered arches and perhaps this feature was the most thoroughly enjoyed of all.

RECEPTION AT GLENDALE SANITARIUM.

On Tuesday evening at the Sanitarium a reception was given in honor of Dr. D. Collieran, who has just assumed the position of physician at that institution. Dr. Collieran comes from Chicago to his new field of usefulness, preceded by a fine reputation as a physician and surgeon, and will no doubt add by his skill to the already enviable reputation of this establishment. There were about a hundred guests present, among them a number of physicians and others from Los Angeles. The rooms were tastefully decorated for the occasion, refreshments were served with an informal program of speeches and music.

ONE AND THREE ARE THIRTEEN.

The Hoodoos held their regular seance this past week in a stretchable house on Cedar street. Glimping black cats and the number 13 were only a part of the accessories employed for effervescent admiration. The festive doughnut was present in large numbers and the supply supplied for the evaporable ones detained by the ever-present rain, was disposed of "among those present." Whist finally claimed attention and the season's score climbed higher—in spots. At midnight the hoodoos disappeared, carrying their milk-pans, a baton, a mystically ciphered auto lamp and even Polytechnic socks with them and peace reigned in the hitherto quiet neighborhood.

SOCIAL SUCCESS OF THE SEASON

Tuesday Afternoon Ladies Entertain their Husbands and Others—An Enjoyable Evening at the Rectory-Guild Hall.

Clad in splendor of velvet and brocade, quilted petticoats, silk hose, buckled shoes; in powdered hair, rouge and fascinating patches, ladies of the Tuesday Afternoon Club on Tuesday night entertained their husbands and friends in Guild Hall, in such a manner that the gentlemen like, "the Ruggies" in the rear," will never forget it!

Bewitching belles of the revolutionary period vied with each other with grace and beauty in entertaining their guests, and no colonial dame ever outdid in courtesy and charm the ladies gathered there to honor the birthday of the illustrious patriot.

Palms, karlands of golden acacia, and the national colors vivified and made appropriate the background for the quaint and exquisite picture. With courtly grace, Martha Washington, first lady of the land, extended hospitality, assisted by a bevy of brocaded beauties.

A spirited march brought the guests to the dining room, gay with bunting and bloom; colonial pictures, clock, hand-woven rugs, curtains, spinning wheel, and bits of old-time furniture. One hundred and forty sat down to the four long tables, which were bright with old-fashioned flowers and tall candles in colonial candelabra.

Mrs. J. C. Sherer, as hostess and representing Martha Washington, presided over a table covered with hand-spun linen and old blue dishes that had seen colonial service. Back of her, on a side table, were rare and almost priceless dishes, of the style used during Revolutionary days, bearing marks of years and usage. Following discussion of the elaborate menu, a star arose from the galaxy about the festive board, and outshone in brilliancy, wit and poesy, even the happy reputation of Miss Cora Hickman, who with simile and synonym proved mistress of the art "as to the manner born," and delighted all with a flow of crystal bright epigram and compliment.

The first toast, "Theodore Roosevelt," was responded to by the hostess. Others were "Martha Washington," "Our Country," "Our Club."

Those responding with compliment, with historical reminiscence, with original poetry were Mrs. James H. Wells, Mrs. Frank Taylor, first club president; Mrs. Pack, president; Mrs. Ezra F. Parker, parliamentarian, and Mrs. Ellen Brown Newcomb, sweet poetess of Glendale. Capt. Wells, tho' called unexpectedly, responded royally, and turned pretty compliments for the ladies.

A splendidly prepared program followed the toasts, those participating were Miss Edith Harris, Miss Maynard, Miss Anna Augspurger, Miss Lillian Ward, Mrs. Walter C. Fraley, Miss Edith Boothe. A particularly dainty bit was the charming minuet of Schubert's by Miss Anita Wells. The sweet old-time charm of colonial femininity was portrayed by the hostess as Martha Washington, in pale yellow quilted satin petticoat, Watteau train in soft gray silk, powdered coiffure with point lace cap; her assistants were Mrs. E. W. Pack in green brocade, Mrs. D. W. Hunt in red brocade, pompadour with curls; Mrs. W. C. Fraley, Dolly Varden brocade. Some of the others were Mrs. Taylor, flowered dimity over pink silk; Mrs. Church, lavender brocade silk and pearls; Mrs. J. N. Witham, hand-embroidered red silk; Mrs. J. H. Wells, satin petticoat, Watteau silk train, point lace, plush coat; Miss Anita Wells, silk cream petticoat, pale blue Watteau embroidered shawl; Mrs. Chas. E. Parker, crimson and white brocade; Mrs. Helen Frazer, hand-painted silk, satin petticoat, real lace; Mrs. Robert Morris, white brocade, satin petticoat, colonial jewels; Miss Penn, red petticoat, colonial shawl, red brocade panieres; Mrs. Gould, lavender silk with lace head-dress; Mrs. Thatcher, pale blue, colonial bodice, velvet garniture; Mrs. David Imber, yellow and white brocade, yellow bertha, old gems; Miss Hickman, cardinal watteau with green brocade, old-time flowers and gems; Mrs. M. V. Colburn, black silk, panieres of lace, scarlet reticule, cameos; Mrs. Ellen Newcomb, gray satin, lace bertha; Mrs. C. J. Newcomb, pale blue satin, cream petticoat, plumes in coiffure; Mrs. Ezra Parker, flowered satin; Miss Mary Blackburn, cream white bride's gown, with lace garniture; Miss Ruth Byram, costume and accessories from seventy-five to two hundred years old, such as cameos, amber beads, lace collar, old gown, head reticule, etc.

Practically all these wore tight pointed bodices, buckled shoes, complexion patches, and powdered pompadours entwined with curls and with jewels dating far back into the past.

A WASHINGTON TEA.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Rawlins on Orange street, Wednesday afternoon, at a Washington tea. A very interesting program was rendered, followed by a social hour during which time delicious cake and ices were served. A tiny silk flag was presented to each guest as a souvenir of the occasion.

GLENDAL, CAL., FEBRUARY 27, 1909

Our modest contemporaries, the Sacramento Union and the Los Angeles Express, are both claiming the sole credit for securing the passage of the Anti-Race Track bill. And there are spoken for ourselves, but for the sake of posterity and to get the facts stated correctly in history, we will take the public into our confidence and confess that we did not do it!

Mayor Harper of Los Angeles, it may be remembered, was elected on the plea that he was a "business man," while the same element that supported him spoke slightly of Dr. Lindley (a man of well demonstrated ability), as a mere "doctor." There are mere "business men" as well as mere "doctors," and the business men as a class have scored probably more failures than any other class of men in existence. The argument that the business man is the best man for a position of public trust, gets many a hard jolt when put to the test.

Will a mere ordinary congressman, be he even in the upper house, never learn to let Roosevelt alone? Senator Hemenway having taken occasion to say that the government's secret service expenditure for the last year was somewhere about $10,000,000, the president shows that it was about one-tenth of that sum. If the effect of the president's vigorous blows struck in self-defense should be to discourage the habit of lying, which seems to be growing upon the American people whenever they refer to a political enemy, particularly a high official, it will not be the least valuable of his great services to the country.

President Schurman, of Cornell, a personal friend of Gov. Hughes of New York, makes out a strong case against the "Direct Primary." His principal objection to it is that it does not do the thing it is intended to accomplish, but on the contrary, quite the reverse. We are glad to be supported by such high authority in our ideas as to the non-efficiency of certain proposed reform legislation. The most of it is a mere makeshift by which a large body of voters would evade personal responsibility. "Let us confess," says President Schurman, "that existing evils are not due to machinery at all, but entirely to the voter." The time is far distant when you can make the world better by pushing a button.

TROPICO ASPIRES.

Tropico is beginning to discuss the question of incorporating. It is evidence of a spirit of progress, which anyone who knows our neighbor at the other end of the avenue, must be conscious of. Her ambitious citizens aspire to do things of a public nature and find that they are seriously handicapped in their efforts. There is small probability of annexation to Los Angeles for a few years to come, and if Tropico desires to keep up with the procession, there are only two ways by which it can be accomplished; first, to incorporate, and second, and finally, go into Glendale! At this early stage of the discussion it may not be required of us that we express an opinion as to which consummation is the more devoutly to be wished, but we fancy that if the opinion of a disinterested outsider, familiar with existing circumstances, should be asked, he would be quite likely to advise the latter course as one calculated in the long run to do the greatest good to the greatest number.

The Recall campaign is now on in Los Angeles. Mayor Harper's opponents have nominated Mr. George Alexander, well and favorably known as one of the minority on the late Board of Supervisors. We do not believe that Mr. Alexander is the strongest possible candidate who might have been selected. His honesty is generally admitted, but he has not demonstrated that he possesses the ability nor the strength of character that is required to fill in a satisfactory manner the difficult position now occupied by Mr. Harper. Mr. Alexander's position as a minority member of the Board of Supervisors, was a comparatively easy one, owing to the fact that he represented a district wholly within the city of Los Angeles. This fact lifted from his shoulders the responsibility of dealing with either the vexatious liquor question or the country roads. Relieved of these two troubles, some duties, the position of supervisor can be creditably filled by any fairly average man. And then when the majority of the board ignored him, the job became a sinecure. "Uncle George" is to all intents and purposes a practically unknown quantity as far as any office of great importance is concerned.

LET US HAVE A BOARD OF TRADE.

Sierra Madre, younger and smaller than Glendale, celebrated the other day in fine style, the first birthday of its Board of Trade; gave its first annual banquet, which was attended by the president and secretary of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and other distinguished guests. It was an enjoyable and eminently successful affair, and cannot fail to have an effect in writing Sierra Madre down as a progressive little city.

We hope to publish a notice in this issue of the NEWS, calling a meeting for the purpose of reorganizing our Board of Trade. A notice to the public a fortnight ago to attend a meeting for this purpose brought out less than a dozen people. We regret an apparent absence of that public spirit in Glendale which is absolutely necessary in the upbuilding of a city. Our pink teas and our lodge meetings seem to absorb all of our energies, we have none left to contribute to the common good. We must have a Board of Trade, and no petty excuse or feeling of sectional or personal jealousy should be allowed to any longer prevent us from getting one, and one that will do things. Every business man in town and every man interested in the community should belong to it. Stand up and be counted!

THE RETURN OF THE FLEET.

It was certainly appropriate; most fitting, indeed, that the fleet which was sent out by the president of the United States in December, 1907, to encircle the world, should return on Washington's birthday to the anchorage from which it sailed. If the "Father of his country" looked down from another sphere upon the scene at Hampton Roads on Monday last, it must have delighted the spirit of him to note the evidence of the growth of the nation which he so potently helped to build upon a firm foundation; as the magnificent fleet afforded. He left on the eastern shore of the continent a bare handful of four millions of souls, about the same number that are now crowded into the greatest of our cities on that coast, and when the great fleet came back to its own, they to the number of eighty millions, scattered all over the continent, welcomed its return. The thirteen states along the Atlantic seaboard in Washington's time were defended on the sea by a few wooden tubs commanded and manned by men of the heroic type of Paul Jones.

On Monday last, twenty great floating forts of steel, sailed into Hampton Roads, manned by 20,000 men, commanded by officers, inspired, everyone we doubt not, by the heroic spirit that animated John Paul Jones. It was a magnificent exhibition of power, and we should be made of poor stuff, indeed, if we felt no pride in the spectacle which greeted the assembled thousands, as we who did not see it, dwell upon the picture that forms in "the mind's eye" when we are told of it.

Welcome to the fleet—and may the pure white of its sheeted armor never be sullied by the sombre dullness of grim-visaged war!

AUXILIARY MEETING AT COUNTRY CLUB.

There will be a business meeting on Monday afternoon at the Country Club house, which members of the Auxiliary are urged to attend. No visitors will be allowed as private affairs of importance will be discussed. It has been whispered, however, that several members have selected a new name as a substitute for "Auxiliary" and each fair claimant announces her selection as the best. The Auxiliary is a power, strongly felt in local society, and should have a name of dignified appropriateness disassociated from any suggestion of smaller societies, church or fraternal organizations, each filling a place in the community that would be void without them. Social organizations are not to be sneezed at as boosters for a young, thriving, growing town, and a name of its own should be bestowed upon the splendid auxiliary to Glendale's first Country Club.

HOW TO BURY A TOWN.

A town that never has anything to do in a public way is on the way to the cemetery. Any citizen who will do nothing for his own town is helping to dig the grave. A man that curses the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to give to city affairs is making the shroud. The man who is always pulling back from any public enterprise throws bouquets on the grave. The man who is so stingy as to be howling hard times, preaches the funeral, sings the doxology, and thus the town lies buried from all sorrow and care.—Western Publisher.

THOSE DAMES OF OLD.

(For the NEWS)

We will prize the gown
Of past renown,
The curls and powdered hair,
And stately ways
Of the olden days
And time-worn laces rare.

Let us hold the names
Of those trusty dames
With reverence loyal and true.
They gave their all
At our country's call,
To the red, the white and blue.

May the dames of this age
Line our history's page
With a record of good work done.
As the women of old
May their deeds be told.
Of the battles with wrong they won.

ELLEN B. NEWCOMB.
Glendale, Feb. 24, 1909.

THE FREE POSTAL DELIVERY SERVICE.

Postmaster McGee informs us that free delivery services, improve daily, although owing to the failure of patrons to inform their correspondents of their street numbers, it is still far from being everything desirable. It is very necessary to secure prompt delivery of mail matter that patrons not only register their street address with the local office, but that they endeavor to get it put on letters, papers and all other mail matter as well. As it is now, mail matter received without street address, even when for well-known firms or individuals, is liable to delay, as it is necessary for carriers to have this information before leaving the office and the work of looking up addresses in the office directory means a great deal of work and consequent delay. As a rule, however, there has been fewer complaints than might naturally be expected under the circumstances.

OPENING BALL OF KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

The ball given by the newly established lodge of K. of P. in their elegant and capacious hall in the Cole & Dick block on Brand boulevard, Friday evening of last week, was the most successful affair of the kind ever given in Glendale. There were 300 guests present, many of them from Los Angeles and other sections outside of Glendale and Tropic, which were of course generously represented. Every effort was made by the management to assure the pleasure of their guests, all of whom were present by invitation. The music was of the best. Punch was served and dancing continued until the early morning hours. The lodge will give another dance on St. Patrick's day—"in the evening" (March 17th), which will probably be as successful as the initial entertainment, except that the number of guests will probably not be so large.

DEATHS.

Thomas F. Vanderhoof, who resided on Fourth street near Central avenue, died at his home at 11 o'clock, Wednesday night. Mr. Vanderhoof had been a resident of Glendale over two years, was 82 years of age, his death being due to old age. Funeral services were held at the Pulliam Undertaking parlors at 3 o'clock yesterday and the remains were taken back to Iowa this morning.

At 2 p. m., Friday afternoon, the funeral services over the remains of Henry Clyde Hooper, who died at his residence in Orange county, were held at the Pulliam Undertaking parlors on Fourth street. Mr. Hooper was a friend of Dr. A. L. Bryant and related to the family of Mr. W. D. Goss of Glendale. He was a young man, only 22 years of age. Interred at Forest Lawn cemetery.

We have arranged for a union gospel temperance meeting, to be held at the M. E. church, on Sunday, March 7, at 7:30 p. m., presided over by the pastors of Glendale; with special music.

METHODIST CHURCH.

Morning service at 11 a. m.; subject, "Bringing Others to Christ;" evening, "Why Does the Methodist Church Advise Against Dancing?" The pastor has been requested by several to preach on the above subject. Two were baptized; three were received into the church from probation and four were received by transfer, last Sunday morning. Thirty-three have been received into the church during the past four months.

You are cordially invited to all the services of the church.

J. F. HUMPHREY, Pastor.

From Barter to Modern Banking

In the olden days there was no such thing as money. Those were the days of barter or swapping. But with the development of men, developed the need of some medium of exchange. Thus various articles of recognized value, served that purpose—skins, grain, bars of iron, copper and silver. Gradually these articles were superseded by coin. As commerce grew, even coin was found to be too bulky, and inconvenient and paper money was adopted. But the ingenuity of man did not stop there. Today the bank check is the most convenient medium of exchange, and it is used in ninety per cent of all business transactions. What would you think of a man who persisted in handling the bulky articles when coin was made available? Does the man of today who carries money on his person, or keeps it in the house deserve any more praise? Keep your money in the Bank of Glendale, and pay every bill by check. They sell MONEY ORDERS, too.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

After this game the boys' team played a pick-up team of former High School pupils and although it was not the regular team, they beat their opponents by a score of 45 to 15. Both teams played their best and made a lively game. George Benson did some good playing, although he had not played in any league team this year.

The date will be announced in a day or two for the entertainment to be given by the school shortly in preparation for which the students are exerting themselves industriously. One of the special features of the program will be the debate between the Seniors and Juniors on the subject of the Recall. Another will be the representation of the trial scene from the "Merchant of Venice." Then there will be choruses and other musical features of great attractiveness; the orchestra particularly being expected to cover itself with glory.

The students are well started in the work of the second half year. The physical geography class will spend the day at San Pedro next Tuesday with Miss Magowan and Miss Hall. These trips are not only very interesting to the students, but have a decidedly practical value.

Enrollment in the high school for the year is now 144. We hope it may reach 150 before the end of the year. Miss Jackson and Miss Utter are the recent entrants.

Miss Knepper spent the week's end at Monrovia and Miss Flood at Pomona, where she visited the high school on Tuesday.

Sixty new high school pennants are in evidence these days. The black letters on the red background make a very effective design.

The boys are having the vacant ground on the new site leveled and put in shape for baseball and track work. The league games in baseball will start soon and the big track meet comes March 27. The boys hope to win the pennant at the track meet again this year.

Polytechnic and San Bernardino play their games in semi-finals for Southern California basketball championship on Saturday of this week. Glendale will play at San Bernardino on Saturday, March 6. The game will be on neutral ground.

On Monday last the alumnae basketball team played the regular high school team on the school court. The regular team won by a score of 32-6. Misses Pittman, Davenport, Cotterell, McPeak, Gilhouse and Valentine played for the alumnae.

Ethel Chase has been ill the last few days. Reginald Bacon has been absent two weeks owing to illness. Arthur Knight has been laid up with poison oak.

Susie Robinson is still absent. The scrub team enjoy the basketball court now that the Famous Five no longer play.

The athletic benefit is scheduled for the near future.

The second number of the Stylus is to be out Monday.

Mrs. W. F. McIntyre, who has been sick at her home on Cypress street for the past few weeks, is slowly improving. It is hoped that she will be well enough to be out in a week or two.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the Union Bible class at G. A. R. hall, every Tuesday evening. Poston Smale will be present at every meeting. Everybody invited.

Mrs. Hattie Brewster entertained Mr. Garcier, formerly of New Orleans but now of Los Angeles at her home on Glendale avenue, Wednesday. Mr. Garcier is an old friend of the Brewsters.

Mr. Wilson, who is a wealthy lumber and grain dealer, with interests in Illinois, North Dakota and Oregon, is so pleased with this valley that he and Mrs. Wilson contemplate locating here.

Central street, west of the San Fernando road, has been leveled and improved during the past week and the grader has also been at work along San Fernando road in the Tropico district.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith of Deland, Florida, and Mrs. C. E. Marsh of Galesburg, Ill., were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stevenson at their new home on Central avenue.

Miss Carrie Stewart of Los Angeles accompanied by Miss Laura Turner of Casey, Ill., and Miss Mable De Lashmud and Miss Alberta Sharpe of Martinsville, Ill., were the guests of Mrs. Anna Inler Smith, the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wilson of Broadlands, Ill., who have been the guests of their niece, Mrs. David H. Inler and Miss Cora Hickman, the past month, returned to their home, Friday, stopping en route at Uplands and Hutchinson, Kas.

Miss Lucy Bettanier of Pasadena, formerly of this place, was entertained by Miss Lucile Pittman of North Glendale during part of the week. Monday afternoon the two young ladies attended the basketball game at the Glendale High School court.

The improvement work on Laurel street between Central avenue and Brand boulevard has been finished and this street is now one of the prettiest in this town. It is understood that the new road overseer is determined to improve other streets in this place.

Mrs. M. G. Ryland, cousin of Miss Evalena Ayers, spent Sunday at the Ayers home on Palmer avenue. Mrs. Ryland departed this week for an extended visit in the northern and eastern states. Among the many things which this lady plans to witness is the inauguration of the president.

The house on Wilkinson court which for some time has been owned by Charles Records, the Tropico plumber, was purchased recently by Andrew Stevenson, proprietor of the Tropico market. Mr. Stevenson has made several improvements around the place and the home has now been rented to Mrs. Caruthers.

A merry party of Tropicoans who enjoyed the balloon room, Monday, comprised Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Logan, Mr. John Hobbs, Mrs. Janet Hobbs, Miss Eva Newell, Misses Katherine Hobbs and Mary Logan, with Mrs. Helen Coulton Marsh of Galesburg, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith of Los Angeles as their guests.

A party of Tropico people attended the automobile hill climb which was held at Altadena, Monday. The party took their lunch and the day was spent in the country of Altadena. Those comprising the party were Mr. and Mrs. Hal Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Lund and Allen Davenport, who went in Davenport's auto, and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Bullis, who made the trip in their own auto.

Mr. Cover Melrose, son of Judge Melrose, who for some time past has been filling a position with a mining company at Ballarat, has gone to Mexico to accept a responsible and lucrative position offered him there as assayer for a large mining company in Sonora. The company has a stamp mill of 130 stamps and Mr. Melrose is to be congratulated upon securing a position of such importance.

Rev. and Mrs. Henry Goodsell entertained very pleasantly with a dinner at their home on Palmer avenue, Monday evening. "Bide-a-Wee" Cottage, as the home is known, was prettily decorated for the occasion, and after the dinner the evening was passed enjoyably. The centerpiece of the table was a miniature cherry tree and the place cards were unique little paper hatchets. Those enjoying this affair included Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Carmack, Mrs. Hooper, Rev. and Mrs. Goodsell, Joy Goodsell and Miss Julia Goodsell.

In Judge Melrose's court, Thursday afternoon, the case of Salto, a Japanese, against Wm. Cummings, for assault, was tried. The trouble occurred at the Pevery ranch in West Glendale. The Japanese was assisting Mr. Leary in his strawberry field a fortnight or so ago, when some trouble occurred over a flume. The testimony showed that the assault was unprovoked, and Japanese being knocked down and pretty badly used up by Cummings who is about twice his victim's weight. The defendant applied for a change of venue, alleging prejudice upon the part of the court, his appeal being denied. Case not concluded.

A very pretty event which occurred on Monday evening of this week was the Washington party given by Miss Blanche and Allen Davenport at their home on Glendale avenue. The guests assembled at an early hour and the first part of the evening was taken up with many different games, after which delicious refreshments were served. The centerpiece of the table was a pretty bouquet of poppies and ferns, while the places were marked with little Washington hatchets made of cardboard. The guests present were members of the party of young folks which went from here to Camp Rincon, in the San Gabriel canyon, last summer, and consisted of Misses May and Carrie Cornwell, Evalena Ayers, Ruby and Freda Borthick and Blandine Davenport; Messrs. In the play of the evening Mrs. Hal Davenport captured the first prize, which was a pretty vase holding a pair of scissors and a magazine knife. For the gentleman's first prize Mr. Edward N. Lynch and Mr. George Ballentyne were a tie, so that the prize which was four valuable coat hangers, was divided, each taking two. The ladies' consolation prize was taken by Mrs. Hattie Brewster, and the gentleman's consolation was received by Mr. Frank Ballentyne. Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ballentyne, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Bullis, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Webster, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wattles, Mrs. Hattie Brewster, George Ballentyne, Edward M. Lynch and Mrs. Wattles of Los Angeles.

TROPICO SCHOOL NOTES.

Under the efficient coaching of Miss Sarah McLean, girls' basketball coach of Glendale High School, the girls of this school are rounding into shape nicely. Several evenings during the week the girls hold practice games and altogether they seem to be giving a great deal more attention to the game at the present time than ever before.

Miss Jennie Clay, one of the teachers at this school, was a member of a party which climbed Mt. Wilson on Washington's birthday. The trip, both going and returning was made in the one day, and Miss Clay is now enjoying the pleasant (?) after effects of the journey.

The boys' baseball team of this school defeated the team representing the Sixth street grammar school of Glendale, on Washington's birthday by the score of 19 to 9. Although they trimmed their opponents so decisively it must be remembered that three members of the Tropico team were absent and the boys played the game without any outfielders. The players on the Tropico team were, Catcher, Harvey Fishel; pitcher, Willie Marple; first base, Morris Burke; short stop, Walter Fishel; second base, Murray Breeden; third base, Herman Bartlett. Misses Marjorie Storer and Helene Morgan, pupils at this school, attended the Edison concert which was given in the Simpson Auditorium, in Los Angeles, Wednesday afternoon.

AT CASA VERDUGO.

Mrs. Helen Carlton Marsh of Galesburg, Ill., with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith of Los Angeles, formerly of Florida, were guests at a luncheon given at Casa Verdugo by Mrs. John Hobbs, Mrs. John A. Logan and Mrs. Andrew Stephenson. Other guests included Miss Eva Newell, Misses Dorothy Hobbs and Mary Logan, Mrs. Janet Hobbs, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Logan and Mr. John A. Logan.

TROPICO IMPROVEMENT MEETING

The regular monthly business meeting of the Tropico Improvement association was held in Logan's hall, Wednesday evening. Not for a long time has the association experienced such an interesting meeting as that of Wednesday night proved to be.

The matter of opening Brand boulevard again proved to be interesting to members, and it received a lengthy discussion. Several members gave short talks upon the subject and finally it was proposed that if it was not possible to open the thoroughfare on both sides of the electric track, that an effort be made to open it on the east side of the line. It is understood that on this side of the line the right-of-way has almost entirely been donated, and it is thought that it will not be a great while before the street will be opened. Along the line for the whole block the property is owned by two families, who justly claim that if the road is cut through their property it will ruin their land and take away from them their home. For this reason alone these property owners are holding out.

A communication was received from the Improvement Association at Edendale. This communication stated that the people of Edendale were very much in favor of having Brand boulevard extended to Los Angeles, through Edendale. The Edendale people suggest that a committee of Tropico citizens be appointed to meet with a committee from the Edendale citizens to see what can be done toward building this boulevard. For this purpose a committee was appointed.

A communication was received from Supervisor Pridham which read as follows: "I am in receipt of your communication from the Tropico Improvement Association relating to road signs. If you will kindly have your association estimate the cost of these signs, I will instruct you to go ahead and have them made, after receiving an estimate from some reliable party in Tropico. I believe if you would have the posts painted white with black lettering on top, indicating intersections of streets, that would be preferable to anything else."

"Yours very truly,"

"R. W. PRIDHAM."

A committee consisting of H. E. Chandler, Hal Davenport and S. B. Chundler, was appointed to prepare an estimate of the cost of these posts and submit to the supervisor as desired.

It was suggested that the road committee ask the people of Tropico in general to plant shade trees along the front of their property, which will conform with the trees that are planted on either side.

W. R. Light, the new road overseer of Tropico district, was complimented on the manner in which he is improving the streets of this place. A committee was appointed to wait upon Mr. Pridham, with the view of having the San Fernando road improved in a substantial manner.

Four new members were received at this meeting. The meeting night of the association was changed from the last Wednesday in every month to the third Monday in each month. This change was made with the hope that if the meetings are held on Monday evenings it will be possible to have a larger attendance at the meetings.

The meeting appointed an entertainment committee. It will be the work of this committee to prepare a suitable entertainment for every meeting. It will be the duty of this committee to prepare a musical and literary program for the next meeting, which will be held in this hall on the evening of Monday, Feb. 15th.

TROPICO METHODIST ITEMS.

By the Pastor.

The absence of the regular superintendent was greatly felt in the Sunday school service of our church, last Sunday, but despite this handicap an interesting meeting resulted. The school seems to be growing in numbers and enthusiasm.

At the morning church service a love feast preceded the holy communion. The majority of the members present rose and gave testimony. The growth in spiritual interest is doubtless the result of the recent series of revival meetings which were held in this church.

A meeting of the Sunday School board of this church was held in the church parlors, Wednesday evening. Quite a number of the teachers and officers were present and the hour proved to be real interesting. Considerable business, important to the working of the Sunday School, was transacted.

The members of the Epworth League are arranging to give a social in the church building in the near future. The early part of the evening will be taken with a pleasing program, which is being arranged, after which a social time will be enjoyed in the parlors of the church. The league are endeavoring to make this event one of considerable interest and pleasure. A cordial invitation will be extended to every one to attend.
